Paul Wellstone

Senator Wellstone belongs on this list not because of ties to the Illuminati, but because it's widely believed he was killed by them. The democratic senator from Minnesota consistently questioned the narrative regarding the September 11th attacks, and he was one of the only elected officials to vote against authorizing the war in Iraq. For this, it's believed he was "taken out" in a plane crash in 2002.

Robert Byrd

A segregationist who helped found a Ku Klux Klan chapter in West Virginia, Senator Byrd was one of the last of the old school southern democrats.
